

IS IB A CHRISTIAN PROGRAM?

Although IB is not faith-based, it aligns with MVC's Christ-centered mission. Though there are numerous Christian IB schools around the world, it is likely that MVC will be the first Evangelical school in the United States to offer IB for both middle and high school students.

HOW DO YOU COMBINE IB AND CHRISTIANITY?

The ultimate goal of an IB education, described in the Learner Profile, is very much in line with the characteristics MVC has always endeavored to engender in our graduates. Though we value and pursue those traits with different motivation - ultimately, to honor God in all things - MVC is confident that our identity as a Christ-centered educational institution can not only survive but thrive within the IB framework.
